I have great pleasure in writing to you for submission to the Dewan Saheb that, at a meeting of the Executors of the Estate of the late Pradhana Siromani T. In accordance with the decision reached, I enclose four cheques on the Bank of Mysore, Ltd., Bangalore, for Rs.38,760/- as detailed in the margin. The cheques are drawn in favour of the Dewan of Mysore.

Many thanks for your reply memo No. Fl.298 dated 14th July 1923 re the late Dewan Mr. & Mrs. T. Ananda Row's Charities.

I beg to inform the Government and the Priminister of the State that late Dewan Mr. T. Ananda Rao did not leave any instructions in his Will to give effect to the wishes of the late Mr. Ananda Row on charities. But it is an arrangement created by Executors and R.L's opponents, by mutual consent in Court to end the waste in litigation. I am submitting a copy of the last Will for perusal and return, which will speak for itself and thus put a stop, the black investure created, on the late gentleman's character by some men. If late gentleman had said in the Will for charities who can stop that, so goes the feeling.

I hope the funds will be used to the modern ideas of Education in Mysore which may bring more xxxxx revenue to the State.

Excuse for the plain truth.

The several Executors and Residuary Legatees have since signified their consent to the amounts set apart for the charities being utilised in the manner proposed by Mr. T. Govinda Rao.

2. The proceeds of the endowment to the University are proposed to be utilised for the purpose of awarding scholarships, -- prizes and medals. The Registrar, Mysore University, who was requested to obtain the opinion of the University Council in regard to the proposals of Mr. Govinda Rao for the utilisation of the endowment (item ~~(ii)~~ (i)) has intimated that the matter was considered at the meeting of the University Council held on the 25th November 1[illegible]5, when it was resolved that the modifications suggested by the Vice-Chancellor be accepted and submitted to Government. The rules as modified by the University Council and accepted by Mr. Govinda Rao are approved and appended to this order.

3. The Srinivasa Mandiram Building Fund (Item ii) is proposed to be made available towards the extension of Srinivasa Mandiram building, if Government are satisfied that there is an early prospect of completing the building.

4. The scheme proposed regarding the Spectacle Fund is as follows

When the bonds in which the investment is made are discharged, the question of finding another suitable investment will be considered. Savings, if any, in the annual income of these endowments will be added to the corpus of respective funds.

7. As regards the Srinivasa Mandiram Building Fund, the question of its investment in a long-term loan does not arise, as the amount set apart for the same is intended to be paid towards the cost of extension of the Srinivasa Mandiram Building. Government therefore direct that it may continue as a deposit in the Government Savings Bank to be withdrawn by the Comptroller and paid to the authorities concerned in consultation with the Inspector General of Education on such conditions as the latter may impose to ensure the completion of the building.
